What is Marriage Preparation?

Marriage preparation is not the same as your wedding preparation. Already you may be spending time planning your wedding day. It is about planning your whole lifetime of marriage.

We want you to look at some of the matters that are going to be an important influence on your lives together.

The Course is designed to:

- Encourage you both to discuss your present relationship
- Help you understand the changes you will both undergo during your whole married life
- Make you aware of various conflict resolution skills
- Strengthen your communication skills
- Sexuality
- Family Planning
- Knowing yourself and your partner

Additional information is available from FOCCUS Inc website.
